Attention: Carlos D. Tramutola
Executive Vice President

Dear Mr. Tramutola:

This will confirm the basis upon which Dalmine Siderca has retained our firm.

As we have discussed, our work will fall principally into three categories. First, we will monitor and analyze events and attitudes in the United States that might affect your interests. Second, we will advise you concerning possible courses of action to head off, or defend against, efforts to erect import barriers against your products.

Third, we will represent Dalmine Siderca, as a member of the Centro de Industriales Siderurgicos ("CIS"), in the Escape Clause (Section 201) proceedings that have resulted from the January 24, 1984 filing with the International Trade Commission of a petition by Bethlehem Steel Corporation and the United Steelworkers of America. This will include representation during both the injury and remedy phases before the International Trade Commission and in connection with review by the President. This representation will include, as appropriate, preparation on behalf of CIS of a pre-hearing brief on injury for submission to the ITC; participation on behalf of CIS in the pre-hearing conference and the hearing on injury before the ITC, now scheduled for April 30 and May 9, respectively; responding to inquiries from and maintaining contact with the ITC staff; preparation of a pre-hearing brief on remedy for submission to the ITC; participation in the pre-hearing conference and the hearing on remedy; preparation of post-hearing briefs; and making other contacts in connection with presidential review.

It has been agreed that you will make an initial retainer payment of $10,000, plus a monthly retainer of $3,000. We will credit these retainer payments against the fees to be incurred as we start work on these matters. Through the completion of the Section 201 proceeding, our fees will be based upon our usual time charges for professional, paraprofessional, and other direct hours devoted to these services. For the ongoing monitoring and reporting work after completion of the Section 201 proceedings, our fees will be the retainer of $3,000 per month. At the end of a year, we would review that monthly payment with you to determine if it is still appropriate. - If any other extensive or especially burdensome projects, such as defending other trade remedy actions or gathering or analyzing extensive economic data, are assigned to us, those would be the subject of separate billing arrangements. Statements for our services will be sent to you on a monthly basis.

It is also understood that, in addition to the amounts to be paid us for our services, Dalmine Siderca will reimburse Arnold & Porter for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of Dalmine Siderca and CIS, including such items as travel expenditures and living expense when out of town, taxi fares, long-distance tolls, printing and other reproduction costs, and the like. Statements for these disbursements will be sent to you on a monthly basis.

It is understood that a copy of this agreement will be filed with the United States Department of Justice as part of the registration required under the Foreign Agents Registration Act with respect to our representation of Dalmine Siderca.
